The Ottoman Sultans supported poets and scientists intending to increase the knowledge and cultural level of the state and had a very close relationship with them. It is known that the Ottoman Sultans knew Islamic culture and literature very well and many of them were poets. There are many sultans who wrote a divan and had a pen name. One of the poet Sultans whose illuminated divan manuscripts have survived to the present day is Osman II, he used the pen name "Fârisî" in his poems.

Sultan Osman II (1604-1622) was the sixteenth sultan of the Ottoman Empire. Fârisî, who passed away at a very young age, wrote a total of 119 poems in 6 different verse forms in his eighteen years of. His poems reflect a strong literary power, his writing is simple and understandable.

This paper aims to examine the illumination of the Divan that is registered at the Topkapı Palace Museum Library Revan 741, in whichSultan Osman II (Fârisî) collected his poems, in terms of motif, pattern, color, and style characteristics, and page layout.

The dimensions of the Divan are 280x190 mm with 107 pages, each page has 12 lines with two columns written with Naskh calligraphy and inclined lines. In this manuscript, there are a total of 111 poems, consisting of 28 lyric, 1 müseddes, 63 verse, 2 kıt'a, 1 ruba'i, and 16 müfred. The first page has the seal of Sultan Mahmud I. The date, place, and calligrapher of the manuscript are unknown.

Keywords: Divan, Sultan Osman II, Illumination, Manuscript.
